

Constitution

1. Name

The name of the Society shall be "Society of Algorithmic Intelligence", hereinafter referred to as "the Society."

2. Place of Business

The registered place of business of the Society shall be in Singapore. The specific address shall be determined by the Executive Committee and reported to the Registrar of Societies (RoS).

3. Objectives

The objectives of the Society are:

- a) To advance research, education, and collaboration in Algorithmic Intelligence, including Artificial Intelligence, Data Science, Machine Learning, Optimization, High-Performance Computing, Cybersecurity, Robotics, and emerging technologies.
- b) To organize academic and professional activities in Singapore and worldwide, such as conferences, workshops, seminars, and outreach events.
- c) To foster a global network of researchers, practitioners, and institutions engaged in algorithmic sciences.
- d) To support the publication and dissemination of academic and educational materials aligned with the Society's aims.
- e) To engage in any other lawful activities that support or promote the objectives of the Society.

4. Membership

- a) Membership is open to individuals and institutions with an interest in the objectives of the Society.

- b) The Society shall have various categories of membership, including but not limited to: Ordinary Members, Permanent Members, Student Members, Honorary Members, and Institutional Members, as defined in the by-laws.
- c) The Executive Committee reserves the right to approve or reject membership applications, following the principles and procedures outlined in the by-laws.
- d) Membership terms, benefits, and obligations shall be governed by the by-laws and may be amended by the Executive Committee as necessary.

5. Subscription and Fees

- a) The entrance fee and annual subscription rates shall be determined by the Executive Committee and may be revised as necessary.
- b) Membership shall be renewed on an annual basis, subject to payment of fees and compliance with the Society's rules.

6. Executive Committee

- a) The Society shall be governed by an Executive Committee comprising:
 - President
 - Vice President(s)
 - Secretary
 - Treasurer
 - Up to twelve (12) additional committee members
- b) A minimum of seventy percent (70%) of Executive Committee members shall be Singapore Citizens or Permanent Residents, in accordance with the prevailing guidelines of the Registry of Societies (RoS). All committee members must meet eligibility requirements under Singapore law and in compliance with RoS regulations.
- c) Executive Committee members shall serve a fixed term of two (2) years and may be re-elected for successive terms.
- d) The Executive Committee shall have the authority to co-opt additional members to fill vacant positions or bring in individuals with relevant expertise. Such co-options shall be approved by a majority vote of the existing committee and shall be valid until the next general election. All co-opted members shall possess the same voting rights and responsibilities as elected committee members unless otherwise specified.

e) The Executive Committee shall be empowered to manage the affairs of the Society and make decisions on matters not specifically provided for in this Constitution.

f) For any Executive Committee decision to be binding, the President must be present or the meeting must be held under the President's delegation. If the President is not present, decisions must be reviewed and confirmed by the President within 7 days.

7. Advisory and Subcommittees

a) The Executive Committee may establish Subcommittees, Working Groups, and Advisory Boards to support the Society's activities.

b) Such groups may include local and international members, including those who are not part of the Executive Committee.

c) The roles and responsibilities of these groups shall be determined by the Executive Committee.

8. Meetings

a) The Annual General Meeting (AGM) shall be held within three (3) months after the end of the financial year.

b) Executive Committee meetings shall be convened as needed, but at least twice per calendar year.

c) Meetings may be conducted in person or through electronic means, subject to quorum requirements as specified in by-laws.

d) Quorum and voting procedures shall be defined in the Society's by-laws and may be amended by the Executive Committee.

9. Finance

a) The Society may collect entrance fees, membership subscriptions, receive donations, apply for grants, and conduct fundraising activities consistent with its objectives.

- b) Society funds may be used to support official travel, software tools, honoraria, administrative expenses, and events that further the Society's mission.
- c) All expenditures must be approved by the Executive Committee.
- d) The Treasurer shall maintain financial records and present a statement of accounts at the AGM.
- e) The Society shall maintain a bank account in its name. The Treasurer shall have authority to manage withdrawals for society-related expenses in accordance with the approved budget or resolutions of the Executive Committee. All expenditures shall be recorded and subject to annual review and clearance by the Committee at the AGM.

10. Amendments

Proposals to amend the Constitution must be approved by at least two-thirds (2/3) of voting members present at an AGM or Extraordinary General Meeting, and subsequently submitted to the Registrar of Societies for approval.

11. Dissolution

In the event of dissolution, all remaining funds and assets of the Society shall be transferred to an organization or institution with similar objectives, as determined by a majority vote at a General Meeting and in accordance with Singapore law.
